In the beginning...

Marlin Walsh began planting trees on 104 acres of land just north of Newark back in 1958. Little did he know what memories and wonderful times it would bring for generations of many families to come. He is now with the Lord; his wife, Carolyn, their four children and spouses, and 15 grandchildren have kept the farm going, along with all of the memories and traditions he left behind. Say hello when you stop by this year. We'll be happy to see you!
